

Planned Giving is truly the best way for you to leave a lasting legacy to ensure the vital mission of Queen of Peace Catholic Academy. There are many planned giving opportunities available to you as our benefactor when planning your estate. The simplest and easiest is to name Queen of Peace Catholic a Academy in your will. We urge you to consider this and other options today to ensure that a Catholic education and the values it teaches are available in our community for years to come. Contact the Catholic Foundation for more information through the link below. Or contact them at:
